Resolved, 1. That we reaffirm and endorse the political principles that from time to time have been put forth by the National Conventions of the Democratic party.

2. That we are unalterably attached to the Constitution, by which the Union of these States was formed and established; and that a faithful observarice of its principles can alone continue the existence of the Union, and the permanent happiness of the people.

Toat the present civil war has mainly resulted from the long continued, unwise, and fanatical sigitation, in the North, of the question of domestic slavery, the consequent organization of a geographical party, guided by the sectional platforms adopted at Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, and Chicago, and the development thereby of sectional hate and jealousy, producing (as had long been foreseen and predicted by us) its ort in the South of secession, disunion, and armed resistance to the General Government, and tern nating in a bloody strife between those who should have been forever bound together by fraternal bonds, thus bringing upon the whole country & calamity which we are now to meet as loyal citzens, striving for the adoption of that mode of settlement best calculated to again restore un in and harmony.

at in rejecting all propositions likely to a satisfactory adjustment of the matters between the North and the South, and those measures which would have secured the border slave States to the Union, and a operation on their part in all constitulegal measures to procure a return of Southern States to their allegiance, the Republisan party assumed a fearful responsibility, and acted in total disregard of the best interests of the whole country.

That if the party in power had shown the same deire to settle, by amicable adjustment, our internal dissensions before hostilities had actually commenced, that the Administration has recently exhibited to avoid a war with our aneremy, Great Britain, we confidently believe that peace and harmony would now reign throughout all our borders.

6. That the maintenance of the Union upon the principles of the Federal Constitution should be the controlling object of all who profess loyalty to the Government-and in our judgment this pur ose can only be accomplished, by the y of a Union party in the Southern hich shall, by a counter revolution, dis-States. se who control and direct the present re-That no effort to create or sustain such in be successful which is not based upon settlement of the questions at issue bee two sections; and we therefore demand e such settlement be made by additional onal guaranty, either initiated by act of or through the medium of a National

Tat in this national emergency the Democracy of Indiana, banishing all feeling of passion and resentment, will recollect only their duty to the whole country; that this war should not be waged in the spirit of conquest or subjugation, the purpose of overthrowing or interforing with the rights or institutions of the States. but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution, and to preserve the Union with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States enimpaired; and that as soon as these objects ar accomplished the war ought to cease. Wood, Dear Sir-In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending to the Stafe and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was entirely bereft of its covering, and will not be surprised when I tell yet that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaint-ances to recognize me at all.

to become reconciled to my fate, until fortunately in the latter part of the year 1857, your restorative was recommended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time I have used seven dollars' worth of your Restorative, and as a result, have a rich coat of very soft black hair, which no money can buy. As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production of so wonderful an article, I have recommended its use to many of my friends and acquaintances, who, I am happy to inform you, are using it with like effect. Very respectfully.

OAK GROVE, S. C., June 24, 1859 SPALDING'S THROAT CONFECTIONS Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir-Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test.

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the road side, from which my head received a most terrible blow, causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effect of which my hair was finally destroyed over the entire surface of the head. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself; and, as I thought understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy Hair Restorative, which I have every reason to belive produced a very happy result; two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my most sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Dear Sir.—I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstances, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth, so much so that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give it to you at the request of Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents.

Yours, &c.. THOMPSON SURGHNOR. CHESTER, S. C., 30th July, 1859. Paor. O. J. Wood-Dear Sir: I take pleasure in recommending your flair Restorative as a most excellent cure for scald head. My son was suffering very much from this disease, and after using one bottle: was made perfectly well. I recommended it to others who had diseases of the head, and in all cases it had the desired effect. You can recommend it without fear as a most certain cure for scald head. Many others will certify that this and many other cases was cured from the use of your most valuable Hair Restorative.

Respectfully yours, GEORGE McSUAIN. The New York Day Book says: "The majority of Hair Washes, Lair Dyes, Hair Tonics, Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations which are now before the public under such extravagant, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as we see paraded in show window cards and newspaper headings, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water; their real merit, when they possess any, is, that they so no harm. HOG'S LARD, WHALE OIL, LARD OIL, SWEET OIL, scented and colored, make up, when in beautiful wrappers and white flint glass bottles, the costlicit character of tonics; and when thus costly are baptized with some trisyllable term, and caught at by verdant young and old of both sexes. Such is not the character of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative. This gentlemen comes pefore the world with-out any "highfalutin" Xilophioforum, or any other as-tounding or startling catchpenny terms; he simply ad-vertises a Hair Restorative—what it expresses, precisely-and as a Restorative it acts. Buy Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative; and, as you value your scalp, aye, your very brains, apply nothing else; for it may be that you will get some worse substance that perfumed lard oil on your cranium. Remember, Wood's Restorative for the hair is the best article extant."
